

The National Defense University is located on the grounds of Fort Lesley J. McNair in Southwest Washington between the Anacostia River and the Washington Channel. Some local landmarks are the Waterfront Metro, the Waterside Mall, and the Arena Stage.

NDU is located about 1/4 mile from the Washington Metro's Waterfront station on the Green Line. Leaving the station, walk down 4th Street (S) three blocks until it ends and becomes P Street SW. The Ft McNair main gate will be plainly visible.

To enter Ft. McNair, visitors will be required to show a current DoD picture identification badge, a state issued driver's license with photo, or a passport with photo. Depending on the risk assessment, the Military Policy may ask you for a second form of identification. If that happens, you may use two of the three mentioned above.

For entry after 5 pm pedestrians must use the "2nd Street" gate ~100 yds east of main gate. Continue east along P Street from the main gate to 2nd Street and turn right to the gate.

To enter Ft. McNair, visitors without a DoD vehicle sticker will be required to show either a current DoD picture identification badge, a state issued driver's license with photo, or a passport with photo.
