

BOARD OF VISITORS
NATIONAL DEFENSE
UNIVERSITY
Washington, D.C.

The preeminent joint institution for education, research and outreach in national and international security

General Lloyd W. Newton
United States Air Force

Lloyd W. “Fig” Newton is a retired Executive Vice President, Pratt & Whitney Military Engines, East Hartford, Connecticut. As Executive Vice President, he was responsible for all aspects of customer requirements, support and services. He provided leadership and direction for all business development, aftermarket services and activities associated with integrated logistics support and fleet management. He was also responsible for worldwide customer satisfaction and the continued growth of the Military Engine business which has $1.3 Billion in annual revenue.

A retired four-star General, Newton joined Pratt & Whitney in September 2000 after a successful 34 & 1/2 year career with the United States Air Force. He was born in Ridgeland, South Carolina, where he graduated from Jasper High School. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in aviation education and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant from Tennessee State University, Nashville, Tennessee in 1966. In 1985, he received a Master of Arts degree in Public Administration from George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

The General is a command pilot with more than 4,000 flying hours in the T-37, T-38, F-4, F-15, F-16, C-12 and the F-117 stealth fighter. In 1968, he flew 269 combat missions in Vietnam and was selected to join the U.S. Air Force Aerial Demonstration Squadron, the Thunderbirds, in November 1974. From 1978 to 1982, he was assigned as an Air Force congressional liaison officer with the U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. He has commanded three wings, an air division and held numerous senior staff positions. He served as the Director of Operations, United States Special Operations Command and as Assistant Vice Chief of Staff Headquarters U.S. Air Force.

Newton culminated his Air Force career as the Commander, Air Education and Training Command where he was responsible for recruiting, training and education for all Air Force personnel. His command consisted of 13 bases, 43,000 active duty personnel and 14,000 civilians. In 1998, General Newton was inducted into the South Carolina Aviation Hall of Fame and in April 2005, he was appointed by President Bush to serve as a commissioner on the Defense 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission. Newton retired from Pratt & Whitney in March 2006 and currently serves on the Board of Directors of Goodrich Corporation, Torchmark Corporation and Sonoco Corporation. In June 2009, he was appointed by President Barack Obama to serve as a commissioner for the White House Fellows Program.

Newton is married to the former Elouise Morning and they reside near Tampa Florida.