PHOTO CREDITS

The cover features a reproduction of a painting entitled Air Transport in the South Pacific—1943 by Sidney Simon (U.S. Air Force Art Collection); the four cover insets (clockwise, from top left) capture American and Thai special forces descending from a helicopter during Cobra Gold '94 (Joint Combat Camera Center); M1A1 tank during Bright Star '94 (U.S. Army/Jeffrey T. Brady); F-16D on patrol during Roving Sands '94 (Combat Camera Imagery/Steve Thurow); and USNS Comfort in transit through the Panama Canal (U.S. Air Force/H. Cintron).

The background work of art replicated for the table of contents is B-17 Base in England by Peter Hurd (U.S. Air Force Art Collection); insets on these pages (from top left) include shoulder tabs and patch of a CARICOM force member (DOD/Greg Scott); a reproduction of a painting of a carrier launch during World War II entitled Plane Director by Paul Sample (The Life Collection of World War II Art/U.S. Army Center of Military History); operating room preparations during the Persian Gulf War (U.S. Navy/Joe Gawlowicz); and an American soldier taking an Iraqi prisoner of war during Desert Storm (DOD).

The back cover depicts a change of command at Tactical Assembly Area Liberty, Kuwait (55th Signal Company/Casey T. Smith).

The Typography and Design Division of the U.S. Government Printing Office is responsible for layout and art direction.

Joint Force Quarterly is published for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff by the Institute for National Strategic Studies, National Defense University, to promote understanding of the integrated employment of land, sea, air, space, and special operations forces. The journal focuses on joint doctrine, coalition warfare, contingency planning, combat operations conducted by the unified commands, and joint force development.

The editors invite articles and other contributions on joint warfighting, inter-service issues that support jointness, and topics of common interest to the Armed Forces (see page 136 for details). Please direct editorial communications to:
