NATO COURSE

Officers about to embark on their first NATO staff assignment or who deal with European security affairs are encouraged to enroll in the NATO Staff Officer Orientation Course (NSOOC) offered by the Institute for National Strategic Studies at the National Defense University. Established in 1987 under CJCS Instruction 1210.01, the course is an intense two-week program of instruction which is conducted seven times per year. It is mandatory for all O-4s through O-6s being assigned to NATO headquarters and agencies in Europe and North America.

This course is also useful for both military officers and civilians who serve on the staffs of commands and agencies responsible for NATO/European affairs, including the Joint Staff, Office of the Secretary of Defense, and Department of State. Military attachés assigned to U.S. missions and students en route to staff and war colleges in Europe can also benefit from the program.

The NSOOC staff is also available for "outreach training" through condensed presentations on NATO specifically tailored to customer needs which can be provided to U.S. Government agencies and military organizations including the Reserve components.
