

Acknowledgments

The two volumes of The Global Century: Globalization and National Security are products of a research project on globalization and security sponsored by the Department of the Navy and carried out by the Institute for National Strategic Studies (INSS) at the National Defense University (NDU). For their support and guidance, special thanks are due to the former Under Secretary of the Navy, Jerry M. Hultin, and the Deputy Under Secretary, Charles Nempfakos, as well as their staffs.

The editors of both volumes are Richard L. Kugler and Ellen L. Frost with help from Stephen J. Flanagan and Harlan K. Ullman. The editors were greatly assisted by the INSS globalization team led by Kimberley L. Thachuk. This team included Lt Col Charles B. Shotwell, USAF, Colleen M. Herrmann, Esther A. Bacon, and Elena Beloderik.

The editors gratefully acknowledge those who contributed to the production of these volumes. Editorial Associates of Washington, DC, performed initial copyediting and indexing; the Publication Directorate at INSS and the staff of NDU Press—William R. Bode, George C. Maerz, Lisa M. Yambrick, and Jeffrey D. Smotherman—under the supervision of Robert A. Silano, Director of Publications, conducted final copyediting; Jeffrey D. Smotherman also designed and composed all text; and William A. Rawley and Nicholas C. Crawford of the Typography and Design Division of the U.S. Government Printing Office designed the cover.

The strategic assessments and policy appraisals contained in these two volumes represent the work of many scholars and analysts. The editors thank them for their participation and contributions. 🌐
