

Integrating and Balancing Civ-Mil Approaches During Complex Operations: Tactical and Operational Experiences in Helmand Province

NATIONAL DEFENSE UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR COMPLEX OPERATIONS
FT. LESLEY J. MCNAIR, WASHINGTON DC

FRIDAY, 6 AUGUST 2010

- 0730-0820 Registration - National Defense University, Lincoln Hall, Building 64
- 0820-0830 Welcome/Administrative Instructions – Dale Erickson, Center for Complex Operations
- 0830-0900 Introductory Remarks - BGen Larry Nicholson, Commanding General, Marine Expeditionary Brigade - Afghanistan from Feb 2009 to May 2010
- 0900-0930 Congressman Duncan Hunter (R-CA), Views on the Way Ahead in Afghanistan
- 0930-0940 Break
- 0940-1105 Panel Discussion #1 - Multi-National/ Inter-Agency/ Host Nation Challenges
Moderator: National Defense University
Col George Amland, USMC, Task Force Leatherneck (2d MEB) Deputy Commanding General in 2009-2010
Col Greville Bibby, British Army, Deputy Commander, Task Force Helmand (U.K. task force) and Deputy Head, Helmand PRT in 2009
Peter Hawkins U.K. Stabilisation Unit, Helmand PRT, Deputy Head for Delivery
- 1105-1115 Break
- 1115-1215 Larry Sampler, Vice President, Creative Associates, formerly Principal Deputy Coordinator, S/CRS; currently Senior Advisor to the UN SRSG - Afghanistan
- 1215-1315 Lunch
- 1315-1445 Panel Discussion #2 - Effects and Results
Moderator: National Defense University
Col Michael Killion, USMC, Operations Officer (G-3), Task Force Leatherneck 2009-2010
Ian Purves, U.K. Stabilisation Advisor, Garmisir District and Nawa District, Helmand Province
Marlin Hardinger, U.S. Dept of State, Political Section of the Helmand PRT
- 1445-1500 Closing Remarks