

15th Annual
Western Hemisphere Security Colloquium

Rethinking Hemispheric Security and Strategy:
Ten Years after the Mexico City OAS Declaration

May 21-22, 2012

Lincoln Hall Auditorium
Fort Lesley J. McNair
Washington, D.C.

Draft versions of the Panel Papers for each of the Colloquium's five themes will be posted prior to the event.

- The Americas in Global Security Affairs, Luigi Einaudi, Distinguished Visiting Fellow, Institute for National Strategic Studies
- Sub-regional Contributions to Regional Security, Hal Klepak, PhD, Professor Emeritus of the Royal Military College of Canada
- Making Inter-American Reference Points on Security and Defense More Useful, Dennis Skocz, PhD, Strategic Planning Consultant
- Latin American, the United States, and Other's Role in Strengthening Military Capacities, John Cope, Senior Research Fellow, Institute for National Strategic Studies
- Adapting Traditional U.S. Defense Tools to New Conditions, Margaret Daly Hayes, PhD, EBR Associates and Professor of Security Studies at Georgetown University