

173

ARMY INDUSTRIAL COLLEGE

PROBLEM NO. 6

- SUBJECT: Funds for Procurement
- OBJECT: A study of the methods of obtaining Congressional Appropriations and the fiscal control (which insures that they are legally expended and properly accounted for as distinguished from their budgetary control which should insure that they are wisely expended for the best interest of our National Defense) of the funds so obtained.
- REFERENCES: Solution to Problem #16, Second Course
"The Budget" - General K. W. Walker - War College Address, January 9, 1925.
Navy Department Practice.
- REQUIRED: Prepare a monograph which embodies the opinion of the committee as to the best organization and procedure in the War Department for securing funds for procurement and the steps which should be taken in time of peace to insure the prompt appropriation of necessary funds in time of War.
- COMMITTEE: Capt. W. J. Henry, Chairman
Commander L. W. Jennings
Col. R. T. Ellis
Maj. T. B. McAfee