

advisor team missions such as Provincial Reconstruction Teams and Coalition Air Force Transition Teams enhance the advisor activities and improve inter-Service coordination. TCO was created to help troops in Iraq who were finding their convoys coming under attack from improvised explosive devices, rocket-propelled grenades, and small arms from insurgent forces. This publication provides a quick-reference guide for convoy commanders operating in theater who are using best practices and common procedures for convoy operations among the Services. All of these publications are designed to assist Servicemembers in accomplishing their missions.

In addition to developing MTTPs for the Warfighter, ALSA produces the Air Land Sea Bulletin (ALSB) three times a year. The ALSB usually has five to seven articles focused around a predetermined topic (such as unmanned aircraft or close air support) written by SMEs in the field. It offers warfighters the opportunity to share operational lessons learned and spread the word about recent developments in warfighting concepts, issues, and Service interoperability. The intent is good cross-Service flow of information among readers around the globe.

At present, ALSA is one of the many outstanding organizations contributing to the fight and helping our nation win its wars. For ALSA, there is always new work on the horizon due to the ever changing operational environment. To learn more about ALSA or to provide feedback, please see the ALSA CAC-enabled Web site at <https://www.alsa.mil> where you can download ALSA MTTPs and publications. These publications will soon be available on the Joint Doctrine, Education, and Training Electronic Information System (JDEIS) Web portal to enable detailed browsing and advanced search.

Cocaine and Instability in Africa: Lessons from Latin America and the Caribbean

Davin O'Regan examines narcotics trafficking in Latin America and the Caribbean for lessons that might be applied to Africa. He finds that the dollar value of cocaine trafficked through West Africa has risen rapidly, surpassing all other illicit commodities smuggled in the subregion. Experience from Latin America and the Caribbean shows that cocaine traffic contributes to dramatically higher levels of violence and instability. Given that co-opting government officials is the preferred method of Latin American traffickers, the author argues that African governments need to act urgently to protect the integrity of their counternarcotics institutions.
