

- 2 From the Editor
by David H. Gurney

FEATURES

- 3 Stabilization and Reconstruction: A Long Beginning
by Richard G. Lugar
- 9 Through the Complex Operations Prism
by Hans Binnendijk and Patrick M. Cronin
- 21 Addressing the Problem of Failed States: A New Instrument
by John E. Herbst
- 27 Military Adaptation in Complex Operations
by David W. Barno
- 37 Complex Operations and Interagency Operational Art
by Christopher M. Schnaubelt
- 51 Organizing for Victory
by James Dobbins
- 63 Time Lag and Sequencing Dilemmas of Postconflict Reconstruction
by Andrew S. Natsios
- 77 National Security Reform: A Prerequisite for Successful Complex Operations
by James R. Locher III

FROM THE FIELD

- 87 A New Approach to the Delivery of U.S. Assistance to Afghanistan
by William M. Frej and David Hatch

LESSONS LEARNED

- 95 Provincial Reconstruction Teams: A Literature Review
by Christoff Luehrs

INTERVIEW

- 103 An Interview with Richard L. Armitage

BOOK REVIEW

- 113 In the Graveyard of Empires: America's War in Afghanistan
Reviewed by Justin Gorkowski