

Coverage of the CJCS DLAs Fostering Habits of Mind

- Understand the environment and the effect of all instruments of power
- Assess how U.S. domestic conditions influence the formulation and execution of national security strategy
 - Assess how conditions within other countries shape those countries' leaders' perceptions, policy decisions and reactions to the strategic environment
 - Analyze transnational and international factors that shape policy and strategy in the United States and selected nations
 - Analyze the fundamental nature, capabilities, and limitations of the instruments of national power as tools of statecraft
 - Evaluate key concepts/ approaches for the use of specific instruments of power
 - Evaluate concepts/approaches for the orchestration of instruments of power to achieve national goals
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6400, 6500 and 6600*
- Anticipate and adapt to surprise and uncertainty
- Apply critical and strategic thinking tools and concepts for anticipating and managing complexity, uncertainty and surprise
 - Apply strategic logic and critical thinking to develop a national security strategy for a specific security challenge
- Courses 6000, 6100 and 1SRP*
- Recognize change and lead transitions
- Apply critical and strategic thinking tools and concepts for anticipating change
 - Apply strategic logic and critical thinking to develop a national security strategy for a specific security challenge
- Courses 6000, 6100 and 1SRP*
- Operate on intent through trust, empowerment and understanding
- Apply tools for developing trust
 - Develop a national strategy capable of conveying clear strategic intent
 - Assess the practice of strategic leadership in illustrative cases
- Courses 6000, 6200, 6300, 6400, 6500 and 1SRP*
- Make ethical decisions based on the shared values of the Profession of Arms
- Analyze decisions against ethical standards and the shared values of the Profession of Arms
 - Assess the practice of strategic leadership in illustrative cases
- Courses 6000, 6200, 6300, 6400 and 6500*
- Think critically and strategically in applying joint warfighting principles and concepts to joint operations
- Evaluate key concepts, theories and analytical approaches that shape critical and strategic logic
 - Evaluate a given national security strategy
 - Evaluate a national military strategy in support of a given national security strategy
- Courses 6100 and 6200*

Coverage of Statutory JPME Requirements

- National Military Strategy
- Comprehend the National Military Strategy
 - Evaluate a national military strategy in support of a given national security strategy
- Courses 6000 and 6200*
- Joint Planning Processes and Systems
- Comprehend the role of U.S. joint planning processes and systems in the development and execution of national security strategy
- Courses 6000 and 6400*
- Joint Doctrine
- Evaluate key concepts, doctrine and approaches for the use of specific instruments of power
- Courses 6000, 6200 and 6300*
- Joint Command and Control
- Assess the suitability of the structure and processes in the U.S. for national leaders to exercise joint command and control over the implementation of national security strategies
- Courses 6200 and 6400*
- Joint Force and Joint Requirements Development
- Postulate U.S. force requirements and force development initiatives in light of the current and anticipated security environment
- Course 6200*
- Operational Contract Support
- Comprehend the role of operational contract support in the development and execution of national level strategies
- Course 6200*
- National Security Strategy
- Comprehend the National Security Strategy
 - Evaluate a given national security strategy
- Courses 6000 and 6100*
- Theater Strategy and Campaigning
- Assess theater strategy and campaigning in support of national security strategy in a selected case
- Course 6200*
- Joint, Intergovernmental, and Multinational Capabilities
- Apply strategic logic and critical thinking to develop a national security strategy for a specific security challenge that is appropriately joint, interagency, intergovernmental and multinational
- Course 6600 and 1SRP*

Coverage of Lessons of the Decade of War

- Understanding the Environment
- Analyze national, transnational and international factors that shape policy and strategy
- Courses 6500, 6600, and 1SRP*
- Conventional Warfare Paradigm
- Develop a national strategy that exploits the full range of conventional military capabilities as appropriate in concert with other appropriate instruments of national power to deal with a given security challenge
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6600 and 1SRP*
- Battle for the Narrative
- Formulate a strategic communication plan that will work in concert with other instruments of national power to control the narrative in a national effort to deal with a given security challenge
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6600 and 1SRP*
- Transitions
- Develop a national strategy for a given security challenge that anticipates and provides for transitions as the strategic effort evolves
- Course 6600 and 1SRP*
- Adaptation
- Adjust a given national strategy when assumptions, estimations and/or judgments at the heart of the strategic design prove incorrect
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6600 and 1SRP*
- SOF-GPF Integration
- Develop a national strategy to deal with a given security challenge that exploits SOF and GPF as appropriate in an orchestrated scheme
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6600 and 1SRP*
- Interagency Coordination
- Assess the implications of the processes for formulating and implementing U.S. national security strategies and policies for the viability of a proposed strategy
- Courses 6400, 6600 and 1SRP*
- Coalition Operations
- Apply concepts and techniques for planning and conducting coalition operations as part of a national strategy
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6600 and 1SRP*
- Host-Nation Partnering
- Apply concepts and techniques for planning and conducting host-nation partnering efforts as part of a national strategy
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6600 and 1SRP*
- State Use of Surrogates and Proxies
- Identify the challenges states can present to U.S. national strategy through the use of surrogates and proxies
- Courses 6200 and 6300*
- Super-Empowered Threats
- Analyze the challenges to U.S. interests and national strategies posed by super-empowered threats
- Courses 6200, 6300, 6500, 6600 and 1SRP*