

College Name/Program: Capstone

Mission: In accordance with the Goldwater-Nichols Department of Defense Reorganization Act of 1986, ensure newly selected Generals and Flag officers understand the fundamentals of joint doctrine and the Joint Operational Art; how to integrate the elements of national power in order to accomplish national security and national military strategies and how joint, interagency, and multinational operations support national strategic goals and objectives.

Program Learning Outcomes: Education at the general/flag officer level is inherently joint and unified in nature. Its focus is on the highest levels of strategy, integrating the elements of national power to achieve national security objectives. In particular, the Capstone course reinforces new general/flag officer comprehension of joint matters and national security strategy needed for the remainder of an officer's career.

Emerging Faculty Skill Requirements (Capstone does not have a faculty)

College Name/Program: Keystone

Mission: The Keystone Course will educate Command Senior Enlisted Leaders (CSEs) currently serving in or slated to serve in a general or flag officer level joint headquarters or Service headquarters that could be assigned as a joint task force. CSEs will have an opportunity to visit and receive briefings at the National Defense University, the DJS J7 Joint Coalition Warfighting Joint Operation Module (JOM) in Suffolk, VA, and several Combatant Commands and Joint Task Forces.

Program Learning Outcomes: The Command Senior Enlisted Leader (CSEL) provides the senior enlisted perspective on strategic issues, creates awareness on the commander's strategic vision and priorities, and oversees the professional development, military readiness, and mission effectiveness of all personnel assigned or attached to the command. The CSEL serves as the senior mentor for all command senior enlisted personnel assigned to Headquarters, Joint Functional Component Commands, Joint Task Forces, and Service components.

Emerging Faculty Skill Requirements (Keystone does not have a faculty)

College Name/Program: Pinnacle

Mission: Convey to the prospective Joint Task Force and Combined Force commanders an understanding of national policy and objectives with attendant international implications and the ability to translate those objectives and policies into integrated campaign plans. The overarching goal is to set conditions for future success in the joint, combined, and interagency arenas by utilizing advanced knowledge of operational art to underpin the instinct and intuition of the prospective commanders.

NDU BOV College/CAPSTONE Slide (CAPSTONE modify format as needed)

Program Learning Outcomes: The Pinnacle curriculum helps prepare prospective Joint Task Force and Combined Force Commanders to lead joint and combined forces, building upon the progression of knowledge imparted first by Capstone and then by the Joint Flag Officer Warfighting Courses. The five-day course is conducted through four days of classroom interactive seminars in J-7's Suffolk, Va. Facility. The seminar is hosted by a current COCOM Commander and guided by retired four-star officers and equivalent interagency Senior Fellows. The classroom sessions are reinforced by video teleconferences with commanders in the field and high-level guest speakers. The fifth day is spent in Washington D.C. in meetings with Executive Branch leaders

Emerging Faculty Skill Requirements (Pinnacle does not have a faculty)

Curriculum Overview Chart (insert here, ok to go to a second page)