NDU Elective 6034:
U.S. Civil-Military Relations & Professionalism
U.S. BORDER

WHAT'S OUR MISSION OBJECTIVE?

MAKING THE PRESIDENT LOOK TOUGH FOR HIS BASE.
Hoping to restore the military’s reputation as an empathetic nation builder, the Pentagon unveils its newest peacekeeping technology.

"The Humanitarian," pictured here, can shoot a canned ham through a man’s chest from a distance of more than six miles.
DON'T YOU KNOW, KID? WE NEED MORE MONEY FOR THE MILITARY SO WE CAN DEFEND AMERICA'S STANDARD OF LIVING!
THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER...

THE KNOWN SOLDIER...

HELLO?... ANYONE?

HOMELESS, SUICIDAL AND SUFFERING FROM PTSD
...This is for holding a marriage together through 2 wars and 3 back-to-back tours. This is for successfully raising 3 boys and a girl with their dad gone. This is for standing by him through his PTSD flashbacks. This is for...
WE IN THE PENTAGON WERE JUST AS DISGUSTED AS YOU WERE, AFTER WATCHING THE VIDEO OF THE 2007 APACHE HELICOPTER ATTACK IN BAGHDAD, WHICH KILLED 12, INCLUDING A REUTERS PHOTOGRAPHER.

DOES THIS MEAN YOU'RE GOING AFTER THE APACHE CREW?

NO, AFTER THE CREEPS WHO RELEASED THE VIDEO.
The Pentagon is ready to send women into combat. Do you call that progress?

I call that the last 10 years.